

LOW INCOME EXPLANATION SAMPLE

Since you reported an unusually low income for an individual/family to live on in 2010, explain how you met your expenses by checking all situations below that applied to you and providing any information required for that item.

In 2010

I lived with my parents, or other relatives and they provided my support.
 The total amount of cash I received from them was $ _____
 The total amount of bills they paid for me was (don't include room & board if you lived with them) $ _____
 FAFSA question 44 j Total $ _____

I lived with a friend (s) who provided my support. $ _____
 The total amount of cash I received from them was $ _____
 The total amount of bills they paid for me was (don't include room & board if you lived with them) $ _____
 FAFSA question 44 j Total $ _____

I was married, supported by my spouse, and am now separated, divorced or widowed.
 I had income of $ _____ for 2010 (do not include spouse's income).
 If there was no income, enter zero.
 The above amount must be reported on the FAFSA as income earned from work, (student FAFSA Question 38 and/or 39 and parent FAFSA question 86 and/or 87) or as untaxed income on student FAFSA question 44 I or j, or parent FAFSA question 92 i.

I had unearned income from Public Aid such as TANF, AFDC, or SSI.
 Do not report the above amounts on the FAFSA as untaxed income for 2011/12.

I had earned income of $ _____ and did not file, nor was I required to file, a tax return in 2010.
 Earned money from the following sources:

Source (e.g. employer)	Amount
_____	$ _____
_____	$ _____

The above amount must be reported on the FAFSA as income earned from work (student FAFSA question 38 and/or 39 and parent FAFSA question 86 and/or 87).

Other (explain)

_____)_____)_____
 Date

 Student Name (print last name, first name)

 Spouse Name (print last name, first name)

 Student Signature

 Spouse Signature

 Student SSN or Student ID

 Parent Name (print last name, first name)

 Parent Signature