

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Florida National College is proud to be a designated Miami-Dade County drop off location for Becca's Closet "Little things can make a big difference..."

Hialeah, Florida – April 12, 2011 –Prom Season is soon approaching and FNC's Main Campus will be receiving, collecting, and gathering prom dresses for young high school students who otherwise would not be able to attend their proms.

FNC is happy to participate in being a drop off location collecting Prom dresses, accessories, etc. for Becca's Closet. We are reaching out to our students, faculty, staff, and the community to join us in this worthwhile cause. In joint effort with Power 96, this event will take place on Tuesday, April 19, 2011, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. at 4425 West 20th Avenue.

Becca's Closet is a national non-profit organization that was started in loving memory of by Rebecca Kirtman, a beautiful, loving, giving, and caring 16 year old South Florida high school student. She was an honor student, cheerleader, who regrettably passed away in a tragic car accident in 2003. Her family, friends, and even those who did not know her keep her dream of giving less fortunate girls prom dresses and accessories, and most importantly the opportunity to fulfill their dream to attend High School Prom! Keeping her spirit alive, Becca's Closet continues to contribute to and help many young students and their communities.

You can help by going through your closets, looking for, finding, selecting, and donating a prom dress and / or accessories. Please share this information with your friends, family, professors, classmates, coworkers, and on your online community profile.

Becca's legacy and desire to help others continues "It's just a dress...but it's so much more!" For more information on Becca's Closet, please visit their website at <http://www.beccascloset.org> and Becca's Closet Documentary by Kimberly Schwartz at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gYX\_y9sWt8g
